

"Any book that helps a child to form a habit of reading, to make reading one of his deep and continuing needs, is good for him." – Maya Angelou

Dear Parents and Carers,

On Tuesday this week, Valency Class held an Egyptian Day to celebrate their learning from the half term. They came dressed in an array of costumes, so much fun and learning took place. The classroom floor wasn't quite the same colour at the end of the day as the start from making flatbreads and mummifying tomatoes but the tasting of flatbreads went down a treat! On Thursday, Fowey class held a fairy tale day and today Lerryn came dressed as a character from a traditional tale.

Such a brilliant love of books from both classes. Thank you so much parents/carers for such brilliant costumes.

A huge well done to our girls football team who won 9-0 earlier in the week. Big thank you to Chris King for leading the team and being with them.

Last night was an AMAZING PTFA disco! The infants danced and danced and I have to say the Juniors were just a little louder! I'm sure the whole village heard Sweet Caroline! So much dancing and singing from one and all. Thank you so much to all the PTFA members who helped to make the evening such a success, the children absolutely loved it! The total raised so far is £300 but the PTFA are still counting. The school council met and discussed the options put forward by pupils as to the charity we are to support this year. The chosen charity is the Cornish Seal Sanctuary

I wish you all a lovely half-term and hope the children have a good rest. I look forward to seeing one and all for the half-term leading up to the exciting Christmas performances on Tuesday 31st October.

Best wishes. Mrs Pipe, Headteacher

Star Learners

The star learners this week come from Year 1. This term Fowey class have been learning about primary and secondary colours and about mixing colours. The children used their knowledge, skills and techniques learnt to create their final piece. Olivia W and Jowan C created colourful representations of Kandinsky 'circles'. Well done, they look incredible!

Absence Requests—Reminder

The law does not grant parents an automatic right to take their child out of school during term time. We publish the dates of school terms well ahead, this is to help you plan your holidays and check that it does not clash with the school term. Permission must be sought in advance.

When deciding whether to allow term time leave, for any reason, the school will consider:

- Are the circumstances surrounding the request exceptional
- The time and duration of the leave (e.g. closeness to Standard Attainment Tests (SATs) in Year 2 and Year 6)
- Your child's record of attendance
- Learning that will be missed

Warning: if the school refuses your request and the child is still taken out of school, this will be recorded as an unauthorised absence.

The Law

The law does not say that parents have an automatic right to take their child out of school for holidays during term time. You have a legal duty to make sure your child attends school regularly and punctually. Research shows that pupils perform better if their parents or carers emphasise the importance of attending school. The school and the Local Authority monitor your child's attendance and will take action if it is poor.

Only in exceptional situations will Governors give permission for any absence.

Advice from the Department for Education in March 2008 states that schools can only approve absence for family holidays if they consider there are special circumstances. Holiday prices, and the fact that the parents have booked a holiday before checking with the school, are not special reasons.

Penalty Notices for unauthorised absence

If you decide to take your child out of school, without permission, you will be committing an offence under the Education Act 1996. We may refer the matter to Cornwall Council who as the issuing officer will may decide to take legal action against you. A penalty notice can be issued under Section 444A and 444B of the Education Act 1996. This carries a fine of £60 if paid within 21 days or £120 if paid after this but within 28 days. Fines are issued per parent/carer, per child. Failure to pay the penalty notice may result in Court action. Persistent absences not authorised by the school may result in a prosecution in the Magistrates Court, leading to fines up to £2,500 and/or custodial sentences.

Local Education Officers make termly visits to schools to review individual attendance figures and will visit families where children's attendance is low or there is persistent absence.

Guidance

Other absence from school will be authorised if it is for the following reasons: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Genuine illness• Unavoidable medical / dental appointments (but try to make these after school if at all possible)• Days of religious observance• Exceptional circumstances, such as bereavement• Seeing a parent who is on leave from the armed forces• External examinations• When Traveller	Other absence from school will not be authorised: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• For any type of shopping• Looking after brothers, sisters or unwell parents• Minding the house• Birthdays• Resting after a late night• Relatives visiting or visiting relatives
