

"I have always imagined that paradise will be a kind of library." – Jorge Luis Borges

Dear Parents and Carers,

It's the end of another busy and brilliant half-term. This week, we have joined with National Children's Mental Health week and Safer Internet Day. Miss Gaskin led a super assembly on Tuesday linked to the national theme of 'Inspiring change, making a difference, managing influence and navigating change online'. Thank you so much to all the children who entered the competition to design a poster to teach all our friends how to keep safe on the internet - the posters are looking brilliant outside the library. Huge well done to our winners Ava, Zara and Florence. We also sang a brilliant song called Be Safe Online - it's definitely a bit of an ear worm!

Last night, saw another wonderful PTFA disco with an array of dancing moves, sequins, glo paint and glo sticks!

Massive thank you to all the PTFA helpers who spent time organising before the event and helping out during the evening. The children had an absolute ball and it really is such a highlight for them all!

Wishing you a lovely half-term. Don't forget the Monday back is a Trust staff training day so we will see everyone again on Tuesday 20th February.

Have a lovely weekend & best wishes.

Mrs Pipe, Headteacher

ParentPay—Trips

Please can we ask that you check your ParentPay accounts for any outstanding payments due for trips, lunches etc.?

Trips are a wonderful enhancement to the children's education and we try very hard to make them relevant and affordable; often offering payment by instalments. We make every effort to ensure that trips go ahead but if contributions are not forthcoming we have to consider cancelling.

If you are having problems with ParentPay, please pop in to the school office and we will see if we can help. If you want to discuss other payment arrangements, again please let us know.

A quick reminder to book your parent/teacher meeting. Instructions are included with this newsletter (Page 4). Bookings close the day before the meeting takes place.

It's Half Term!

A reminder that school is closed next week for Half Term. Have a lovely break and don't forget that Monday 19th February is a non-pupil day. Children will be back to school on Tuesday 20th February.

World Book Day!

Thursday 7th March is World Book Day. This year we are so lucky and excited to have author Simon James visiting us. Children can come into school either dressed as their favourite book character or in their pyjamas. So get your thinking caps on and sewing machines out over half term.

The star learners this week come from Year 2. Loveny class have been inspired this week by the wonderful artist Andy Goldsworthy. They used the skill of weaving to create a 'twig frame nature weaving sculpture'. They worked brilliantly as a team and certainly had lots of fun! Great job, Loveny class!
