

"Books are a uniquely portable magic." – Stephen King

Dear Parents and Carers,

Gool Perran Lowen Dhywgh Onen Hag Oll!

Happy St Piran's Day to one and all

On Tuesday, we enjoyed celebrating St Piran's Day. Children learnt some Cornish, enjoyed Cornish stories, pasties, looked at historical artefacts by becoming historians and of course we sang the unofficial anthem of Cornwall Trelawney and Cornwall My Home. The sounds of them all singing in the hall together always makes me feel proud to be Cornish!

On Thursday, World Book Day was amazing! So many different characters and of course the sleepy crowd in their pyjamas. Lots of things happened through out the day starting off with many of you joining us to read a story and then we were so fortunate to have the author Simon James lead an assembly. Check out the photos on page 3

Cross Country - last Friday was the last race in the league. A massive well done to all those who have taken part - super performances all round with many achieving their personal bests. A fantastic first place to India in Y5! I'd also like to thank Mr Jones for leading them all and taking them each time.

Have a lovely weekend & best wishes. Mrs Pipe, Headteacher

After School Clubs

A reminder that next week is the last week for after school clubs with the exception of GoActive's Archery. Their last session is on 25th March.

Go Cornish

We are joining the project titled 'Go Cornish' to help children learn about our Cornish Heritage. We will be beginning to learn some of the Cornish language in school and hope you enjoy spotting a few words on our newsletter each week!

Photographer in school—PE kits (team kits)

On Monday, the school photographer will be in school to take photos of classes and teams. If your child is in a sports team, please make sure they have their PE kit in school on Monday. Thank you

Snacks in School

Please can we remind you that, as stated in the school welcome letter, any snack brought into school should be without it's wrapper and in a named container. This is a huge help as it hopefully avoids any confusion or loss of snack and it also prevents the school site becoming untidy.

Of course we encourage healthy snacks and all infant children have a fruit/vegetable snack provided for them by the Schools Fruit & Vegetable Scheme. Please support us by providing healthy snacks for the Junior children too.

Please do not bring any sweets or fizzy drinks into school.

PE Kits

Please see our website for uniform reminders.

PE Days

Children will need to come to school dressed in their PE kit on PE days. Long hair should be tied back. Please wear their usual school jumper/ cardigan.

A reminder of the school PE Kit...

Black shorts/leggings/skorts with plain coloured t-shirt (team colours) or white t-shirt and plimsolls/trainers. (No team football kits, running gear or other attire should be worn for P.E. or after school clubs unless specified by the teacher in charge of that club.) During the winter, plain black leggings or jogging bottoms may be worn for outdoor games.

The star learners this week Y6. This week Camel class have been focussed on writing a story based on a stimulus. The stimulus was a picture of a strange music shop. The children had to use their imaginations to decide what the story behind the strange shop could be and what would happen to the characters. They then had to draft, edit and improve their work making use of the plan-do-review Secret Skill. These two pieces by Reuben and Finn were wonderfully written and incredibly creative.

Bob, Jerry and Tim all need instruments, Bob needs a guitar. Jerry needs a drum kit and Tim needs a xylophone. So, all of them go to the music shop to gather their instruments. They realised that the music shop was over 1 hour away. So, they tried looking for a closer one but they couldn't find one so they just had to go to the one they were going to go in the first place.

As they arrived, the door opened without them touching it. Confused and terrified, puzzled and scared they tried to take no notice of the door and walked in like nothing happened. They saw all the instruments they need and go to get them. After they got their instruments, they didn't see a checkout. But they did see a door that said top secret and they thought it was a cool way to checkout. They headed slowly towards it.

As the children walked through the door, the room went black and the door locked behind them. They realised they were on a slim plank of wood. Suddenly, the wood they were standing on ~~was~~ vanished and they fell down landing on a rubbery surface. But, they were all laying on the floor. It was like they ~~had~~ had been hit by poison. Dark, hopeless, trapped - will the children be able to escape?

Reuben

Rushing out of school, the three friends headed to the music shop. NO! They were too late - it had closed they were gutted but Pooch had an idea "we have to find another way in," he explained. "Isn't that illegal?" replied Bob. "Well do you have any other ideas for our music lesson tomorrow, we need a glue!" Pooch exclaimed.

Jeff had a plan, "What about we ~~split~~ split up around here and find a way in." They all agreed. Bob had found a rusty old wrench in an alley way and Jeff had found an air-vent. Luckily, it was built next to a construction site so that they could climb onto some scaffolding and jump in. (It wasn't ~~be~~ that easy to do) one by one the three climbed up the ladder but Bob, was rushing up the ladder.

Bob wasn't slowing down and didn't notice the rusty step and ~~therefore~~ lost all his balance as he fell he hit his head on the rock solid floor. As Pooch and Jeff raced down the ladder but when they had ~~all~~ Bob's blood had escaped his head.

Unfortunately he had died. The boys eyes quickly fitted bars but they knew what they had to do this time they were cautious. As the two had got up there Jeff quietly unscrewed the bolts and snuck in carefully. Half way through the vents they heard a fan turn on it was so strong that Jeff couldn't hold on anymore and let go but since Pooch was really strong he grabbed Jeff's hand and pulled them both into the shop. ~~the two~~ the two had survived the fan of DOOM!

WORLD BOOK DAY

FOOTBALL SUCCESS!

The girls won 3-0 away to Pensilva this afternoon.

They all played brilliantly, with lots of chances created by Ava and Tamara, and shots from Tilly and India.

Mabel and Lucy were fantastic at closing down players to win the ball back for Dobwalls and Connie grabbed a second half hattrick to secure the win.
